

CHARITY VALUATION DAY AT SCOTTISH ANTIQUE & ARTS CENTRE, ABERNYTE ON THURSDAY, 20th APRIL 2017 10.30 am – 3 pm featuring ANTIQURIAN AND ANTIQUE BOOKS

This event will focus on Antiquarian and Rare Books when expert Alan Wilkes, will review items brought in by members of the public and give a verbal indication of their value for a donation of £2 per item. Alan has been a Book Dealer for over 40 years with a shop in Newport on Tay and a stand in the Antique & Arts Centre, Abernyte. He specialises in psychology, philosophy and Scottish literature, but also deals with titles across the board. He also has on display a selection of interesting, valuable and out-of-print books.

The Centre will open at 10am and Valuations will start from 10.30am and be available until 3pm. The Centre will close at 5pm. During the day, Café Circa will also be serving Breakfast, Lunch and Afternoon Tea.

Our charity this year is Dyslexia Scotland a national charity which aims to inspire and enable people with dyslexia, regardless of age and abilities to reach their potential in education, employment and life. Based in Stirling, they have a network of 19 volunteer-led branches across Scotland as well as 3 Adult Networks. They provide a wide range of high quality support and services to people with dyslexia of all ages as well as those who support them, including parents, teachers and employers. That support includes a national Helpline, assessment, tutoring and employment services, dyslexia awareness training, conferences, road shows, branch and Adult Network meetings, Dyslexia Awareness Week events and membership services including a quarterly magazine. There is a wide range of information and advice freely available on our website and social media. Dyslexia Scotland also influences positive change for people with dyslexia by raising awareness about dyslexia, developing national resources such as a ground breaking free online Addressing Dyslexia Toolkit for all teachers of children and young people aged 3-18 years and running successful campaigns to raise awareness and challenge myths about dyslexia.

For further details about this event you can contact SAAC's Abernyte Centre on 01828 686 401. For restaurant reservations please telephone 01828 686 044. Or visit: www.scottish-antiques.com or Facebook.